

USS HUE CITY COMING TO NEW YORK

The USS HUE CITY will be coming to New York City, docking at the Staten Island Pier over Veterans Day weekend.

The ship will be available for tours as listed below:

NOVEMBER 10 10:00 a.m -5:00 p.m

NOVEMBER 11 10:00 a.m -5:00 p.m.

NOVEMBER 12 10:00 a.m- 5:00 p.m.

FROM Kevin J. McCann Post Commander VFW Post 8450:

Anyone who wants a tour of the ship please RSVP to me with the name of your group e.g. Boy Scout Troop 1234, American Legion Post # 1234, VFW Post # 1234 , Friends of VFW Post #1234 , the time that you desire & the approximate # of people attending. The sooner I get that info the better but please no later than November 6th. I will do my best on any later requests but I don't want to inconvenience the crew. This will ensure the maximum efficiency of the ships crew & afford these fine men & women more time to enjoy" liberty" in NYC.

Capt. Gillen has requested that I extend the invitation to as many Vietnam veterans & especially those who fought at Hue City as possible. If you know of any Hue City veterans, please have them contact me as the Captain & crew would like to meet them. So if you know of any individuals or veteran organizations whose members were at that battle please inform them as well as notifying me.

All adults please have photo ID in your possession.
